• Reflect and Write.

Read about the Conquest of Makkah from Seerah, or listen to a lecture, and write down three lessons you learned from this event:

The Conquest of Makkah

Think about the day when Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) returned to Makkah with 10,000 Muslims. The idols were removed from the Ka'bah, and Islam was victorious. Use your imagination to describe what you might have experienced through each of your five senses if you were there.

I might have seen:

I might have heard:

I might have smelled:

I might have tasted:

I might have felt:

Allah is Al Fattah

Imagine having a friend with all the keys and solutions to every tricky problem. This is how Allah, Al-Fattah (The Opener), helps us! When you feel stuck with homework, a fight with friends, or any challenge, Allah as Al-Fattah can open doors you didn't even know existed. Just ask Him and watch as paths open before you!

Write about a time when you were stuck with a problem and Allah, Al Fattah, opened a way out:

Great Muslim Victories

Allah helped the Muslims win great battles throughout history. Can you list at least five battles that the Muslims won?
