Allah is Al Aziz!

Al Aziz means that Allah is the Most Powerful and Strong. He can do anything He wants. No one can stop Him, or defeat Him.

Some people might use their power to hurt others. But Allah is not like them! Allah is the Most Merciful and the Most Wise at the same time. He uses His power to protect, guide, help and love.

Sometimes, Allah punishes evil people with His power. Imagine a playground where some children are bullying others. A kind teacher stops the bullies to protect everyone. Allah's punishment is like this - stopping those who hurt others.

The power and strength that we have, to do different things, is a gift from Al Aziz. We must use it wisely.

Reflection Questions

1. How is Allah's power different from human power?

2. Can you think of a time when someone used power unkindly?

3. How might someone show strength with kindness?

Al Aziz Makes Me Strong!

Did you know that every special ability you have is a beautiful gift from Allah? Some strengths are:

- Physical (like running fast, being healthy)
- Mental (like solving puzzles, learning quickly)
- Emotional (like being kind, understanding others)
- Spiritual (like being patient, loving to help)

If you ever feel weak, remember Allah, Al-Aziz, can make you strong! Just ask Him to help you and believe in His power.

Using our strengths responsibly is a form of worship! Choose any three of your strengths and write about how you can use them in the right way. Also think about how someone might use them in the wrong way.

For example, someone with good leadership skills can help in a group project, making sure everyone contributes OR they could boss around, not listen to others or lead people to do bad things!
