

Market Mission

You have found out that some shopkeepers in your local market aren't being completely honest or fair with customers. Write a letter to these shopkeepers reminding them about the importance of honesty in Islam.

In your letter:

- Begin with a respectful greeting.
- Explain why honesty matters (include an example from Prophet Shoaib's (as) teachings).
- Suggest 2-3 specific ways they could be more fair and honest.
- End with a positive message of hope.
- Remember to be polite and respectful.

Be a good da'ee (caller to Islam) like Prophet Shoaib (as)!
