

Quiz Yourself

Read the story and answer the questions that follow:

One day, Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) passed by a pile of grain. Allah told the Prophet (ﷺ) to put his hand inside the pile. When Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) put his fingers inside, he felt that the grain at the bottom of the pile was damp.

“What is this?” he asked the owner of the grain.

“The rain made it wet, O Messenger of Allah!” the man replied.

“Why didn’t you put it on the top so people could see it?” said the Prophet (ﷺ). “Whoever deceives has nothing to do with me!”

(Sahih Muslim: 102, Sunan Abi Dawud: 3452)

1. Why do you think the seller put the wet grain at the bottom?

2. What should the grain seller have done instead?

3. “Whoever deceives has nothing to do with me!” What does this mean?
